

Romantic, authentic and boutique.

(As it should be for a Stone Town hotel)

Do you ever wonder what it feels like to be treated as a Sultan or Sultana?

Situated in the heart of UNESCO's heritage site Stone Town lays the Zanzibar Palace Hotel; a beautifully renovated old merchant house with distinctive characteristics all over the building. An overnight here is truly a unique experience and makes you feel like stepping back in time.

Renowned as Tanzania's Leading Hotels by the World Travel Awards in 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015, the Zanzibar Palace Hotel offers a unique style with a strong focus on high quality service and modern comforts. The relaxing and charming atmosphere makes it a perfect place to unwind (either in the public areas or in the privacy of your room) and to daydream about the life of the Sultans, while at the same time enjoying a wide range of modern facilities of current life. Enjoy high quality food in our small Restaurant with its quiet ambience, enjoy an alcoholic beverage in the bar, or indulge in a wonderful spa treatment.

The rooms as well as the main areas downstairs, as in lobby, reception, restaurant and bar areas, are fully air-conditioned. This blissfully cool comfort can be a pleasant treat, especially with the sometimes oppressively hot temperatures in Zanzibar where most bars and restaurants are outdoors.

The hotel is independently owned and daily under Dutch management, guaranteeing personalized service of the highest level. Our reception offers a 24 hours' service to assist with questions guests may have. Your hosts will welcome you in English, German and/or Dutch. Together with an experienced team, it specializes in bringing guests highly personalized service, all in a homely atmosphere. It's the perfect place to stay for couples, families or honeymooners looking for a wonderfully romantic hideaway. Throughout the years, we proved it is the staff's dedication to offer the best-personalized world class service you can find.

Location.

Tucked away in the streets of central Stone Town, the hotel can, as one of the few hotels in town, conveniently be reached by vehicles that can stop right outside the front door! Zanzibar Palace Hotel is an ideal base from which to explore and experience all the beauties of this magical town and Island. All of Stone Town's main sightings are within walking distance of the hotel, however just a little bit out of the way to maintain tranquility.

Only 10 minutes' drive from Zanzibar Airport and, because of Stone Town's strategic location on the Island, other destinations, tours and activities are within an effective short driving distance.

The Rooms.

All the nine rooms are completely different and influences of Zanzibar's rich history (a blend of Arabian, Indian and English designs) are integrated throughout. All the furniture is of very high quality and carefully selected to give the hotel a wonderfully traditional and antique feel. Each room features its own unique decor, with many local originating antique pieces of furniture, magical beds, and colourful silks. And our suites are like nothing else in Stone Town: spacious with a collection of original furniture and authentic features, creating an Arabian night's atmosphere.

Room descriptions

Luxury Room (Nadia & Rosewood)

This entry-level room type is a good option for those who wish to enjoy all the facilities and services of the hotel, but who are on a more modest budget. The size of the bedroom is 20m<sup>2</sup> and standard comes with a double bed (no twin option possible), build in cabinet and sitting area. Each room has vivid colors, is wonderfully decorated and mixed with luxurious surroundings and modern comforts. The en-suite bathroom (3m<sup>2</sup>) has a washing basin, shower and toilet.

Romantic Suite (Farizah & Sultana)

Couples and honeymooners be aware: in this highly romantic suite you will fall in love all over again! This large open room has a more romantic and intimate room set-up, due to its open plan bathroom with a huge bath (which is big enough for two).

Each room is 48m<sup>2</sup> and comes with a double bed, build-in cabinet, sitting area and lovely private balcony (11m<sup>2</sup>). Both situated on the front side of the hotel and a big balcony that is ideal to have a tea, relax and/or watch the world go by. Farizah (meaning 'arch' in Arabic) is called after the arch inside and Sultana means wife of the sultan.

Grand Suite (double/twin/triple) (Kijani & Shaba)

Signature Suite (Arabica)

Palace Suite (Sherali)

The spacious suite (67m<sup>2</sup>, located on the 3rd floor) is elegantly decorated in Victorian style. Large wooden sliding panels (with glass), surround the room and give a view of the ocean and picturesque Stone Town. Cooled by the sea breeze on the day and cooled by air-conditioning during the nights. The large suite with antique Zanzibar furniture has a double bed, two impressive fauteuils and a Persian. The romantic bathtub in the suite forces you to relax. Further a semi-open bathroom (22m<sup>2</sup>) with shower, double washing basin, make-up table, double wardrobe and separate toilet. A dream of beauty, luxury and comfort makes it a wonderful place to stay.

Honeymoon Suite (Dunia)

You want something special? Unique in Stone Town!

This spacious suite (69m<sup>2</sup>, located on the 3rd floor) with antique Zanzibar furniture which adds to the royal feeling one gets from entering, a high king-size Sultan's bed, lounge corner, wardrobe and balcony. There are 2 balcony areas. The first balcony overlooking the city is adjacent to the bedroom, whilst the other area can be found one extra floor up (4th floor) on the rooftop; where an outdoor bathroom is located as well.

Dunia means the world in Arabic and that's the feeling you definitely get while bathing in the outdoor bathroom (18m<sup>2</sup>) with views that are to die for. On the rooftop, there is a supersize Sultan's bathtub, shower and toilet. And a private sundeck (6m<sup>2</sup>) overlooking the rooftops of Stone Town, admiring the amazing sea view with a cocktail, being a perfect spot for sunrise, sunset or to gaze out at the star-filled sky.

This suite is perfect for couples, honeymooners, or simply anyone who wants to 'splash out' and feel the need for absolute luxury, comfort and the experience of a unique room!
