

Zanzibar Palace Hotel is a nine room boutique hotel located right in the heart of Stone Town which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is independently owned and daily managed by a Dutch couple, guaranteeing personalized service of the highest level. Zanzibar Palace Hotel is an ideal base from which to explore and experience all the beauties of this magical town and Island.

In each of the nine rooms, Zanzibar's rich history is integrated by Arabian, Indian and English designs. All the furniture is of very high quality and carefully selected to give the hotel a wonderfully traditional and antique feel. Each room features its own unique decor, with many local originating antique pieces of furniture, magical beds, Persian rugs, colourful silks.

The relaxing and charming atmosphere makes for a perfect place to unwind, either in the public areas or in the privacy of your room and daydream about the life of the Sultans. While at the same time enjoying a wide range of modern facilities of current life. Enjoy high quality food in our small Restaurant with its quiet ambience, enjoy an alcoholic beverage in the bar, or indulge in a wonderful treatment in the spa.

Throughout the years we proved it is the staff's dedication to offer the best-personalized world class service you can find.

Your hosts will welcome you in English, German and/or Dutch. Our reception offers a 24 hours service to assist you with questions you may have.

Room descriptions

Nadia:

The Nadia room (20 m², located on the first floor) was the room that had the first guests. In Arabic culture people name their first-born girl often Nadia, that's why we gave the room this name.

A double Zanzibar bed, sitting area, build in cabinet and an en-suite bathroom (3 m²) with shower, toilet and washing basin.

Princesses young or more mature, with or without their prince, can enjoy the luxurious surroundings, even on a more modest budget.

Rosewood:

The Rosewood (20 m², located on the second floor) got his name just by naming the double bed, since it is made out of rosewood.

Further a sitting area; build in cabinet and an en-suite bathroom (3 m²) with shower, toilet and washing basin.

Decorated in soft tones, it is an ideal room for the energetic traveller, who want to relax and be inspired to plan his next excursion.

Farizah:

The Suite Farizah (48 m², located on the first floor) was named like its arch inside which is Farizah in Arabic.

It is a huge ballroom with double bed, build in cabinet, book case, sitting area, open bathroom with huge bath and big private balcony (11m²).

In the Sultan's bath, which is big enough for two, you can enjoy a chilled bottle of our fine selection of wines or just soak away while you watch one of the latest movies from our DVD library.

Sultana:

The Suite Sultana (48 m², located on the second floor) means wife of the Sultan. The large open room has a double bed, build in cabinet, book case, sitting area, open bathroom with huge bath. Alongside your ballroom we offer you a big private balcony (11m²).

A perfect hideaway where you can overview the rooftops of Stone Town whilst reaching your tour guide and planning your trips to discover this historic town. Be aware in this highly romantic room you will fall in love all over again.

Kijani:

The Suite Kijani (48 m², located on the first floor) is decorated with a green colour scheme, Kijani means green in Kiswahili.

The apartment like room is divided in three parts; the entrance is a large lounge (13 m²), secondly a separate superb bathroom (15 m²) with huge bath, washing basin and large dressing area with open cabinet, and thirdly but not last a separate bedroom (20 m²) with a double and a single bed, sitting area and TV corner.

All this only for you, gives a guaranteed homely feeling.

Shaba:

Suite Shaba (48 m², located on the second floor) means copper in Kiswahili. A brass bed and copper decoration in the bedroom made us name the room like that.

The apartment like room is divided in three parts; the entrance is a large lounge (13 m²), secondly a separate superb bathroom (15 m²) with huge bath, washing basin and large dressing area with open cabinet, and thirdly but not last a separate bedroom (20 m²) with a double and a single bed, sitting area and TV corner.

Imagine waking up with the warm beams of the sun. While you refresh we prepare you the most exquisite breakfast which you can enjoy while watching the morning news. Isn't this better than home?

Arabica:

The Suite Arabica (47 m², located on the third floor) is decorated in Arabic style and this was the inspiration for the room name.

The room has a large double bed, with an Arabic styled lounge area on cushions, TV corner, sitting area, and a balcony (5 m²) overlooking the rooftops of Stone Town. The semi separate bathroom (15 m²) has a large shower, double washing basin and a very large dressing area with a beautifully created Zanzibar dresser. It is a bright room ideal to relax and plan your itinerary of tours and sightseeing.

Sherali:

The Palace Suite Sherali (67 m², located on the third floor) was named as a tribute to a friend who guided and assisted us in realising our project.

The spacious suite is elegantly decorated in Victorian style. Large wooden sliding panels (with glass), surround the room and give a view of the ocean and picturesque Stone Town. Cooled by the sea breeze on the day and cooled by air-conditioning during the nights. The large suite with antique Zanzibar furniture has a double bed, cushion lounge and divan. The romantic bathtub in the suite forces you to relax. Further a semi-open bathroom (22 m²) with shower, double washing basin, make-up table, double wardrobe and separate toilet.

A dream of beauty, luxury and comfort makes it a wonderful place to stay.

Dunia:

Palace Suite Dunia (69 m², located on the third floor) means world in Arabic. You want something special... unique in Stone Town.

Open air bathroom (18 m²) on the rooftop with supersize Sultan's bathtub, shower and toilet. A private sundeck (6 m²) overlooking the rooftops of Stone Town, admiring the amazing sea view with a cocktail, being a perfect spot for sunset or sunrise.

Spacious suite with antique Zanzibar furniture which adds to the royal feeling one gets from entering, a high king-size Sultan's bed, lounge corner, ward robe and balcony.

This suite is perfect for couples, honey-mooners, or simply anyone who feel the need for absolute luxury and comfort!
